

8, Ch. 153, Rule §153.1: Definitions

Any reference to Section 50 in this interpretation refers to Article XVI, Texas Constitution, unless otherwise noted. These words and terms have the following meanings when used in this section, unless the context indicates otherwise:

- (1) Balloon - an installment that is more than an amount equal to twice the average of all installments scheduled before that installment.
- (2) Business Day - All calendar days except Sundays and these federal legal public holidays: New Years Day, the Birthday of Martin Luther King, Jr., Washington's Birthday, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Columbus Day, Veterans Day, Thanksgiving Day, and Christmas Day.
- (3) Closed or closing - the date when each owner and the spouse of each owner signs the equity loan agreement or the act of signing the equity loan agreement by each owner and the spouse of each owner.
- (4) Consumer Disclosure - The written notice contained in Section 50(g) that must be provided to the owner at least 12 days before the date the extension of credit is made.
- (5) Cross-default provision - a provision in a loan agreement that puts the borrower in default if the borrower defaults on another obligation.
- (6) Date the extension of credit is made - the date on which the closing of the equity loan occurs.
- (7) Equity loan - An extension of credit as defined and authorized under the provisions of Section 50(a)(6).
- (8) Equity loan agreement - the documents evidencing the agreement between the parties of an equity loan.
- (9) Fair Market Value - the fair market value of the homestead as determined on the date that the loan is closed.
- (10) Force-placed insurance - insurance purchased by the lender on the homestead when required insurance on the homestead is not maintained in accordance with the equity loan agreement.
- (11) Interest - interest as defined in the Texas Finance Code §301.002(4) and as interpreted by the courts.
- (12) Lockout provision - a provision in a loan agreement that prohibits a borrower from paying the loan early.

- (13) Owner - A person who has the right to possess, use, and convey, individually or with the joinder of another person, all or part of the homestead.
- (14) Preclosing Disclosure - The written itemized disclosure required by Section 50(a)(6)(M)(ii).
- (15) Three percent limitation - the limitation on fees in Section 50(a)(6)(E).

8, Ch. 153, Rule § 153.2: Voluntary Lien: Section 50(a)(6)(A)

An equity loan must be secured by a voluntary lien on the homestead created under a written agreement with the consent of each owner and each owner's spouse.

- (1) The consent of each owner and each owner's spouse must be obtained, regardless of whether any owner's spouse has a community property interest or other interest in the homestead.
- (2) An owner or an owner's spouse who is not a maker of the note may consent to the lien by signing a written consent to the mortgage instrument. The consent may be included in the mortgage instrument or a separate document.
- (3) The lender, at its option, may require each owner and each owner's spouse to consent to the equity loan. This option is in addition to the consent required for the lien.

8, Ch. 153, Rule § 153.3: Limitation on Equity Loan Amount: Section 50(a)(6)(B)

An equity loan must be of a principal amount that when added to the aggregate total of the outstanding principal balances of all other indebtedness secured by valid encumbrances of record against the homestead does not exceed 80 percent of the fair market value of the homestead on the date the extension of credit is made. For example, on a property with a fair market value of $100,000, the maximum amount of debt against the property permitted by Section 50(a)(6)(B) is $80,000. Assuming existing debt of $30,000, the maximum amount of the equity loan debt is $50,000.

- (1) The principal amount of an equity loan is the sum of:
 - (A) the amount of the cash advanced; and
 - (B) the charges at the inception of an equity loan to the extent these charges are financed in the principal amount of the loan.

- (2) The principal balance of all outstanding debt secured by the homestead on the date the extension of credit is made determines the maximum principal amount of an equity loan.
- (3) The principal amount of an equity loan does not include interest accrued after the date the extension of credit is made (other than any interest capitalized and added to the principal balance on the date the extension of credit is made), or other amounts advanced by the lender after closing as a result of default, including for example, ad valorem taxes, hazard insurance premiums, and authorized collection costs, including reasonable attorney's fees.
- (4) On a closed-end multiple advance equity loan, the principal balance also includes contractually obligated future advances not yet disbursed.

8, Ch. 153, Rule §153.4: Nonrecourse: Section 50(a)(6)(C)

An equity loan must be without recourse for personal liability against each owner and the spouse of each owner, unless the owner or spouse obtained the extension of credit by actual fraud.

- (1) If an owner or the spouse of an owner cosigns an equity loan agreement or consents to a security interest, the equity loan must not give the lender personal liability against an owner or an owner's spouse.
- (2) A lender is prohibited from pursuing a deficiency except when the owner or owner's spouse has committed actual fraud in obtaining an equity loan.
- (3) To determine whether a lender may pursue personal liability, the borrower or owner must have committed "actual fraud." To obtain personal liability under this section, the deceptive conduct must constitute the legal standard of "actual fraud." Texas case law distinguishes "actual fraud" from "constructive fraud." "Actual fraud" encompasses dishonesty of purpose or intentional breaches of duty that are designed to injure another or to gain an undue and unconscientious advantage.

8, Ch. 153, Rule §153.5: Three percent fee limitation: Section 50(a)(6)(E)

An equity loan must not require the owner or the owner's spouse to pay, in addition to any interest, fees to any person that are necessary to originate, evaluate, maintain, record, insure, or service the extension of credit that exceed, in the aggregate, three percent of the original principal amount of the extension of credit.

- (1) Optional Charges. Charges paid by an owner or an owner's spouse at their sole discretion are not fees subject to the three percent fee limitation. Charges that are not imposed or required by the lender, but that are optional, are not fees subject to the three percent limitation. The use of the word "require" in Section 50(a)(6)(E) means that optional charges are not fees subject to the three percent limitation.
- (2) Optional Insurance. Insurance coverage premiums paid by an owner or an owner's spouse that are at their sole discretion are not fees subject to the three percent limitation. Examples of these charges may include credit life and credit accident and health insurance that are voluntarily purchased by the owner or the owner's spouse.
- (3) Charges that are Interest. Charges an owner or an owner's spouse is required to pay that constitute interest under the law, for example per diem interest and points, are not fees subject to the three percent limitation.
- (4) Charges that are not Interest. Charges an owner or an owner's spouse is required to pay that are not interest are fees subject to the three percent limitation.
- (5) Charges Absorbed by Lender. Charges a lender absorbs, and does not charge an owner or an owner's spouse that the owner or owner's spouse might otherwise be required to pay are unrestricted and not fees subject to the three percent limitation.
- (6) Charges to Originate. Charges an owner or an owner's spouse is required to pay to originate an equity loan that are not interest are fees subject to the three percent limitation.
- (7) Charges Paid to Third Parties. Charges an owner or an owner's spouse is required to pay to third parties for separate and additional consideration for activities relating to originating a loan are fees subject to the three percent limitation. Charges those third parties absorb, and do not charge an owner or an owner's spouse that the owner or owner's spouse might otherwise be required to pay are unrestricted and not fees subject to the three percent limitation. Examples of these charges include attorneys' fees for document preparation and mortgage brokers' fees to the extent authorized by applicable law.
- (8) Charges to Evaluate. Charges an owner or an owner's spouse is required to pay to evaluate the credit decision for an equity loan, that are not interest, are fees subject to the three percent limitation. Examples of these charges include fees collected to cover the expenses of a credit report, survey, flood zone determination, tax certificate, title report, inspection, or appraisal.
- (9) Charges to Maintain. Charges paid by an owner or an owner's spouse at the inception of an equity loan to maintain the loan that are not interest are fees subject to the three percent limitation. Charges that are not interest that an owner pays at the inception of an equity loan to maintain the equity loan, or that are customarily paid at the inception of an equity loan to maintain the equity loan, but are deferred for later payment after closing, are fees subject to the three percent limitation.
- (10) Charges to Record. Charges an owner or an owner's spouse is required to pay for the purpose of recording equity loan documents in the official public record by public officials are fees subject to the three percent limitation.

- (11) Charges to Insure an Equity Loan. Premiums an owner or an owner's spouse is required to pay to insure an equity loan are fees subject to the three percent limitation. Examples of these charges include title insurance and mortgage insurance protection.
- (12) Charges to Service. Charges paid by an owner or an owner's spouse at the inception of an equity loan for a party to service the loan that are not interest are fees subject to the three percent limitation. Charges that are not interest that an owner pays at the inception of an equity loan to service the equity loan, or that are customarily paid at the inception of an equity loan to service the equity loan, but are deferred for later payment after closing, are fees subject to the three percent limitation.
- (13) Secondary Mortgage Loans. A lender making an equity loan that is a secondary mortgage loan under Chapter 342 of the Texas Finance Code may charge only those fees permitted in TEX. FIN. CODE, §§ 342.307, 342.308, and 342.502. A lender must comply with the provisions of Chapter 342 of the Texas Finance Code and the constitutional restrictions on fees in connection with a secondary mortgage loan made under Chapter 342 of the Texas Finance Code.
- (14) Escrow Funds. A lender may provide escrow services for an equity loan. Because funds tendered by an owner or an owner's spouse into an escrow account remain the property of the owner or the owner's spouse those funds are not fees subject to the three percent limitation. Examples of escrow funds include account funds collected to pay taxes, insurance premiums, maintenance fees, or homeowner's association assessments. A lender must not contract for a right of offset against escrow funds pursuant to Section 50(a)(6)(H).
- (15) Subsequent Events. The three percent limitation pertains to fees paid or contracted for by an owner or owner's spouse at the inception or at the closing of an equity loan. On the date the equity loan is closed an owner or an owner's spouse may agree to perform certain promises during the term of the equity loan. Failure to perform an obligation of an equity loan may trigger the assessment of costs to the owner or owner's spouse. The assessment of costs is a subsequent event triggered by the failure of the owner or owner's spouse to perform under the equity loan agreement and is not a fee subject to the three percent limitation. Examples of subsequent event costs include contractually permitted charges for force-placed homeowners insurance costs, returned check fees, debt collection costs, late fees, and costs associated with foreclosure.
- (16) Property Insurance Premiums. Premiums an owner or an owner's spouse is required to pay to purchase homeowners insurance coverage are not fees subject to the three percent limitation. Examples of property insurance premiums include fire and extended coverage insurance and flood insurance. Failure to maintain this insurance is generally a default provision of the equity loan agreement and not a condition of the extension of credit. The lender may collect and escrow premiums for this insurance and include the premium in the periodic payment amount or principal amount. If the lender sells insurance to the owner, the lender must comply with applicable law concerning the sale of insurance in connection with a mortgage loan.

8, Ch. 153, Rule §153.7: Prohibition on Prepayment Penalties: Section 50(a)(6)(G)

An equity loan may be paid in advance without penalty or other charge.

- (1) A lender may not charge a penalty to a borrower for paying all or a portion of an equity loan early.
- (2) A lockout provision is not permitted in an equity loan agreement because it is considered a prepayment penalty.

8, Ch. 153, Rule §153.8: Security of the Equity Loan: Section 50(a)(6)(H)

An equity loan must not be secured by any additional real or personal property other than the homestead. The definition of "homestead" is located at Section 51 of Article XVI, Texas Constitution, and Chapter 41 of the Texas Property Code.

- (1) A lender and an owner or an owner's spouse may enter into an agreement whereby a lender may acquire an interest in items incidental to the homestead. An equity loan secured by the following items is not considered to be secured by additional real or personal property:
 - (A) escrow reserves for the payment of taxes and insurance;
 - (B) an undivided interest in a condominium unit, a planned unit development, or the right to the use and enjoyment of certain property owned by an association;
 - (C) insurance proceeds related to the homestead; or
 - (D) condemnation proceeds;
 - (E) fixtures; or
 - (F) easements necessary or beneficial to the use of the homestead, including access easements for ingress and egress.
- (2) A guaranty or surety of an equity loan is not permitted. A guaranty or surety is considered additional property for purposes of Section 50(a)(6)(H). Prohibiting a guaranty or surety is consistent with the prohibition against personal liability in Section 50(a)(6)(C). An equity loan with a guaranty or surety would create indirect liability against the owner. The constitutional home equity lending provisions clearly provide that the homestead is the only allowable collateral for an equity loan. The constitutional home equity provisions prohibit the lender from contracting for recourse of any kind against the owner or owner's spouse, except for provisions providing for recourse against the owner or spouse when the extension of credit is obtained by actual fraud.

- (3) A contractual right of offset in an equity loan agreement is prohibited.
- (4) A contractual cross-collateralization clause in an equity loan agreement is prohibited.
- (5) Any equity loan on an urban homestead that is secured by more than ten acres is secured by additional real property in violation of Section (50)(a)(H).

8, Ch. 153, Rule § 153.9: Acceleration: Section 50(a)(6)(J)

An equity loan may not be accelerated because of a decrease in the market value of the homestead or because of the owner's default under other indebtedness not secured by a prior valid encumbrance against the homestead.

- (1) An equity loan agreement may contain a provision that allows the lender to accelerate the loan because of a default under the covenants of the loan agreement. Examples of these provisions include a promise to maintain the property or not remove improvements to the property that indirectly affects the market value of the homestead.
- (2) A contractual cross-default clause is permitted only if the lien associated with the equity loan agreement is subordinate to the lien that is referenced by the cross-default clause.

8, Ch. 153, Rule §153.10: Number of Loans: Section 50(a)(6)(K)

An equity loan must be the only debt secured by the homestead at the time the extension of credit is made unless the other debt was made for a purpose described by Section 50(a)(1)-(a)(5) or (a)(8)

- (1) Number of Equity Loans. An owner may have only one equity loan at a time, regardless of the aggregate total outstanding debt against the homestead.
- (2) Loss of Homestead Designation. If under Texas law the property ceases to be the homestead of the owner, then the lender, for purposes of Section 50(a)(6)(K), may treat what was previously a home equity mortgage as a nonhomestead mortgage.

Source Note: The provisions of this § 153.10 adopted to be effective January 8, 2004, 29 TexReg 84

8, Ch. 153, Rule §153.11: Repayment Schedule: Section 50(a)(6)(L)(i)

Unless an equity loan is a home equity line of credit under Section 50(a)(6)(t), the loan must be scheduled to be repaid in substantially equal successive periodic installments, not more often than every 14 days and not less often than monthly, beginning no later than two months from the date the extension of credit is made, each of which equals or exceeds the amount of accrued interest as of the date of the scheduled installment.

- (1) For a closed-end equity loan to have substantially equal successive periodic installments, some amount of principal must be reduced with each installment. This requirement prohibits balloon payments.
- (2) Section 50(a)(6)(L)(i) does not preclude a lender's recovery of payments as necessary for other amounts such as taxes, adverse liens, insurance premiums, collection costs, and similar items.

8, Ch. 153, Rule §153.12: Closing Date: Section 50(a)(6)(M)(i)

An equity loan may not be closed before the 12th calendar day after the later of the date that the owner submits an application for the loan to the lender or the date that the lender provides the owner a copy of the required consumer disclosure. For purposes of determining the earliest permitted closing date, the next succeeding calendar day after the date the lender provides the owner a copy of the required consumer disclosure is the first day of the 12-day waiting period. The equity loan may be closed at any time on or after the 12th calendar day after the date the consumer disclosure is provided to the owner.

- (1) Submission of a loan application to an agent acting on behalf of the lender is submission to the lender.
- (2) A loan application may be given orally or electronically.

8, Ch. 153, Rule §153.13: Preclosing Disclosures: Section 50(a)(6)(M)(ii)

An equity loan may not be closed before one business day after the date that the owner of the homestead receives a final itemized disclosure of the actual fees, points, interest, costs, and charges that will be charged at closing. If a bona fide emergency or another good cause exists and the lender obtains the written consent of the owner, the lender may provide the documentation to the owner or the lender may modify previously provided documentation on the date of closing.

- (1) A lender may satisfy the disclosure requirement of this section by delivery to the borrower of a properly completed Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) disclosure Form HUD-1 or HUD-1A.
- (2) Bona fide emergency.
 - (A) An owner may consent to receive the preclosing disclosure or a modification of the preclosing disclosure on the date of closing in the case of a bona fide emergency occurring before the date of the extension of credit. An equity loan secured by a homestead in an area designated by Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) as a disaster area is an example of a bona fide emergency if the homestead was damaged during FEMA's declared incident period.
 - (B) To document a bona fide emergency modification, the lender should obtain a written statement from the owner that:
 - (i) describes the emergency;
 - (ii) specifically states that the owner consents to receive the preclosing disclosure or a modification of the preclosing disclosure on the date of closing;
 - (iii) bears the signature of all of the owners entitled to receive the preclosing disclosure; and
 - (iv) affirms the owner has received notice of the owner's right to receive a final itemized disclosure containing all actual fees, points, costs, and charges one day prior to closing.
- (3) Good cause. An owner may consent to receive the preclosing disclosure or a modification of the preclosing disclosure on the date of closing if another good cause exists.
 - (A) Good cause to modify the preclosing disclosure or to receive a subsequent disclosure modifying the preclosing disclosure on the date of closing may only be established by the owner.
 - (i) The term "good cause" as used in this section means a legitimate or justifiable reason, such as financial impact or an adverse consequence.
 - (ii) At the owner's election, a good cause to modify the preclosing disclosure may be established if:
 - (I) the modification does not create a material adverse financial consequence to the owner; or
 - (II) a delay in the closing would create an adverse consequence to the owner;
 - (III) The term "de minimis" as used in this section means a very small or insignificant amount.

- (B) At the owner's election, a de minimis good cause standard may be presumed if:
 - (i) the total actual disclosed fees, costs, points, and charges on the date of closing do not exceed in the aggregate more than the greater of $100 or 0.125 percent of the principal amount of the loan (e.g. 0.125 percent on a $80,000 principal loan amount equals $100) from the initial preclosing disclosure; and
 - (ii) no itemized fee, cost, point, or charge exceeds more than the greater of $100 or 0.125 percent of the principal amount of the loan than the amount disclosed in the initial preclosing disclosure.
- (C) To document a good cause modification of the disclosure, the lender should obtain a written statement from the owner that:
 - (i) describes the good cause;
 - (ii) specifically states that the owner consents to receive the preclosing disclosure on the date of closing;
 - (iii) bears the signature of all of the owners entitled to receive the preclosing disclosure; and
 - (iv) affirms the owner has received notice of the owner's right to receive a final itemized disclosure containing all fees, costs, points, or charges one day prior to closing.
- (4) An equity loan may be closed at any time during normal business hours on the next business day following the calendar day on which the owner receives the preclosing disclosure or any calendar day thereafter.
- (5) The owner maintains the right of rescission under Section 50(a)(6)(Q)(viii) even if the owner exercises an emergency or good cause modification of the preclosing disclosure.

8, Ch. 153, Rule §153.14: One Year Prohibition: Section 50(a)(6)(M)(iii)

An equity loan may not be closed before the first anniversary of the closing date of any other equity loan secured by the same homestead property. An equity loan may be refinanced any time after the first anniversary of the loan's closing date.

- (1) Section 50(a)(6)(M)(iii) prohibits an owner who has obtained an equity loan from:
 - (A) refinancing the equity loan before one year has elapsed since the loan's closing date; or
 - (B) obtaining a new equity loan on the same homestead property before one year has elapsed since the previous equity loan's closing date, regardless of whether the previous equity loan has been paid in full.

- (2) Section 50(a)(6)(M)(iii) does not prohibit modification of an equity loan before one year has elapsed since the loans closing date. A modification is a transaction in which one or more terms of an existing equity loan is modified, but the note is not satisfied and replaced.
 - (A) A modification of an equity loan must be agreed to in writing by the borrower and lender, unless otherwise required by law. An example of a modification that is not required to be in writing is the modification required under the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act.
 - (B) The advance of additional funds to a borrower is not permitted by modification of an equity loan.
 - (C) A modification of an equity loan may not provide for new terms that would not have been permitted by applicable law at the date of closing of the extension of credit.

8, Ch. 153, Rule §153.15: Location of Closing: Section 50(a)(6)(N)

An equity loan may be closed only at an office of the lender, an attorney at law, or a title company. The lender is anyone authorized under Section 50(a)(6)(P) that advances funds directly to the owner or is identified as the payee on the note.

- (1) An equity loan must be closed at the permanent physical address of the office or branch office of the lender, attorney, or title company. The closing office must be a permanent physical address so that the closing occurs at an authorized physical location other than the homestead.
- (2) A lender may accept a properly executed power of attorney allowing the attorney-in-fact to execute closing documents on behalf of the owner.
- (3) A lender may receive consent required under Section 50(a)(6)(A) by mail or other delivery of the party's signature to an authorized physical location and not the homestead.

8, Ch. 153, Rule §153.16: Rate of Interest: Section 50(a)(6)(O)

A lender may contract for and receive any fixed or variable rate of interest authorized under statute.

- (1) An equity loan that provides for interest must comply with constitutional and applicable law. Interest rates on certain first mortgages are not limited on loans subject to the federal Depository Institutions Deregulation and Monetary Control Act of 1980 and the Alternative Mortgage Transaction Parity Act. Chapter 342 of the Texas Finance Code provides for a maximum rate on certain secondary mortgage loans. Chapter 124 of the Texas Finance Code and federal law provide for maximum rates on certain mortgage loans made by credit unions. These statutes operate in conjunction with Section 50(a) and other constitutional sections.

- (2) An equity loan must amortize and contribute to amortization of principal.
- (3) The lender may contract to vary the scheduled installment amount when the interest rate adjusts on a variable rate equity loan. A variable-rate loan is a mortgage in which the lender, by contract, can adjust the mortgages interest rate after closing in accordance with an external index.
- (4) The scheduled installment amounts of a variable rate equity loan must be:
 - (A) substantially equal between each interest rate adjustment; and
 - (B) sufficient to cover at least the amount of interest scheduled to accrue between each payment date and a portion of the principal.
- (5) An equity loan agreement may contain an adjustable-rate of interest that provides a maximum fixed-rate of interest pursuant to a schedule of steps or tiered rates or provides a lower initial interest rate through the use of a discounted rate at the beginning of the loan.

8, Ch. 153, Rule §153.17: Authorized Lenders: Section 50(a)(6)(P)

An equity loan must be made by one of the following that has not been found by a federal regulatory agency to have engaged in the practice of refusing to make loans because the applicants for the loans reside or the property proposed to secure the loans is located in a certain area: a bank, savings and loan association, savings bank, or credit union doing business under the laws of this state or the United States; a federally chartered lending instrumentality or a person approved as a mortgagee by the United States government to make federally insured loans; a person licensed to make regulated loans, as provided by statute of this state; a person who sold the homestead property to the current owner and who provided all or part of the financing for the purchase; a person who is related to the homestead owner within the second degree of affinity and consanguinity; or a person regulated by this state as a mortgage broker.

- (1) An authorized lender under Chapter 341, Texas Finance Code, must meet both constitutional and statutory qualifications to make an equity loan.
- (2) A HUD-approved mortgagee is a person approved as a mortgagee by the United States government to make federally insured loans. Approved correspondents to a HUD-approved mortgagee are not authorized lenders of equity loans unless qualifying under another section of (a)(6)(P).

- (3) A nondepository lender or broker that makes, negotiates, arranges, or transacts a secondary mortgage loan that is governed by Chapter 342, Texas Finance Code, must comply with the licensing provisions of Chapter 342, Texas Finance Code.
- (4) A lender who does not meet the definition of Section 50(a)(6)(P)(i), (ii), (iv), (v), or (vi), must obtain a regulated loan license under Chapter 342 of the Texas Finance Code to meet the provisions of subsection (iii).

8, Ch. 153, Rule § 153.18: Limitation on Application of Proceeds: Section 50(a)(6)(Q)(i)

An equity loan must be made on the condition that the owner of the homestead is not required to apply the proceeds of the extension of credit to repay another debt except debt secured by the homestead or debt to another lender.

- (1) The lender may not require an owner to repay a debt owed to the lender, unless it is a debt secured by the homestead. The lender may require debt secured by the homestead or debt to another lender or creditor be paid out of the proceeds of an equity loan.
- (2) An owner may apply for an equity loan for any purpose. An owner is not precluded from voluntarily using the proceeds of an equity loan to pay on a debt owed to the lender making the equity loan.

8, Ch. 153, Rule § 153.20: No Blanks in the Equity Loan Agreement: Section 50(a)(6)(Q)(iii)

A home equity loan must be made on the condition that the owner of the homestead not sign any instrument in which blanks are left to be filled in.

- (1) This Section of the Constitution prohibits the owner of the homestead from signing any instrument in which blanks are "left to be filled in". This Section is intended to prohibit a person other than the owner from completing one or more blanks in an instrument after the owner has signed the instrument and delivered it to the lender, thereby altering a party's obligation created in the instrument. Not all documents or records executed in connection with an equity loan are instruments, and not all blanks contained in an instrument are "blanks that are left to be filled in" as contemplated by this Section.
- (2) As used in this Section, the term instrument means a document or record that creates or alters a legal obligation of a party. A disclosure required under state or federal law is not an instrument if the disclosure does not create or alter the obligation of a party.
- (3) If at the time the owner signs an instrument, a blank is completed or box checked which indicates the owner's election to select one of multiple options offered (such as an election to select a fixed rate instead of an adjustable rate) and the owner therefore by implication has excluded the non-selected options, the instrument does not contain "blanks left to be filled in" when the non-selected option is left blank.

This agency hereby certifies that the adoption has been reviewed by legal counsel and found to be a valid exercise of the agency's legal authority.

8, Ch. 153, Rule §153.22: Copies of Documents: Section 50(a)(6)(Q)(V)

The Finance Commission of Texas and the Texas Credit Union Commission withdraws the proposed new §153.22 which appeared in the March 3, 2006, issue of the Texas Register (31 TexReg 1393).

Filed with the Office of the Secretary of State on June 30, 2006.

8, Ch. 153, Rule §153.24: Release of Lien: Section 50(a)(6)(Q)(vii)

The lender must cancel and return the note to the owner and give the owner a release of lien or a copy of an endorsement and assignment of the lien to another lender refinancing the loan within a reasonable time after termination and full payment of the loan. The lender or holder, at its option, may provide the owner a release of lien or an endorsement and assignment of the lien to another lender refinancing the loan.

- (1) The lender will perform these services and provide the documents required in 50(a)(6)(Q)(vii) without charge.
- (2) This section does not require the lender to record or pay for the recordation of the release of lien.
- (3) Thirty days is a reasonable time for the lender to perform the duties required under this section.
- (4) An affidavit of lost or imaged note, or equivalent, may be returned to the owner in lieu of the original note, if the original note has been lost or imaged.

8, Ch. 153, Rule §153.25: Right of Rescission: Section 50(a)(6)(Q)(viii)

The owner of the homestead and any spouse of the owner may, within three days after the extension of credit is made, rescind the extension of credit without penalty or charge.

- (1) This provision gives the owner's spouse, who may not be in record title or have community property ownership, the right to rescind the transaction.
- (2) The owner and owner's spouse may rescind the extension of credit within three calendar days. If the third calendar day falls on a Sunday or federal legal public holiday then the right of rescission is extended to the next calendar day that is not a Sunday or federal legal public holiday.

- (3) A lender must comply with the provisions of the Truth in Lending Act permitting the borrower three business days to rescind a mortgage loan in applicable transactions. Lender compliance with the right of rescission procedures in the Truth in Lending Act and Regulation Z, satisfies the requirements of this section if the notices required by Truth in Lending and Regulation Z are given to each owner and to each owner's spouse.

8, Ch. 153, Rule § 153.41: Refinance of a Debt Secured by a Homestead: Section 50(e)

A refinance of debt secured by a homestead and described by any subsection under Subsections (a)(1)-(a)(5) of Section 50 of the Texas Constitution that includes the advance of additional funds may not be secured by a valid lien against the homestead unless: (1) the refinance of the debt is an extension of credit described by Section (a)(6) or (a)(7) of Section 50 of the Texas Constitution; or (2) the advance of all the additional funds is for reasonable costs necessary to refinance such debt or for a purpose described by Subsection (a)(2), (a)(3), or (a)(5) of Section 50 of the Texas Constitution.

- (1) Reasonableness and necessity of costs relate to the type and amount of the costs.
- (2) In a secondary mortgage loan, reasonable costs are those costs which are lawful in light of the governing or applicable law that authorizes the assessment of particular costs. In the context of other mortgage loans, reasonable costs are those costs which are lawful in light of other governing or applicable law.
- (3) Reasonable and necessary costs to refinance may include reserves or impounds (escrow trust accounts) for taxes and insurance, if the reserves comply with applicable law.

8, Ch. 153, Rule §153.51: Consumer Disclosure: Section 50(g)

An equity loan may not be closed before the 12th day after the lender provides the owner with the consumer disclosure on a separate instrument.

- (1) If a lender mails the consumer disclosure to the owner, the lender shall allow a reasonable period of time for delivery. A period of three calendar days, not including Sundays and federal legal public holidays, constitutes a rebuttable presumption for sufficient mailing and delivery.

- (2) Certain provisions of the consumer disclosure do not contain the exact identical language concerning requirements of the equity loan that have been used to create the substantive requirements of the loan. The consumer notice is only a summary of the owner's rights, which are governed by the substantive terms of the constitution. The substantive requirements prevail regarding a lenders responsibilities in an equity loan transaction. A lender may supplement the consumer disclosure to clarify any discrepancies or inconsistencies.
- (3) A lender may rely on an established system of verifiable procedures to evidence compliance with this section.

8, Ch. 153, Rule §153.82: Owner Requests for HELOC Advance: Section 50(t) (1)

A home equity line of credit (HELOC) is a form of an open-end account that may be debited from time to time, under which credit may be extended from time to time and under which the owner requests advances, repays money, and reborrows money. Any owner who is also a named borrower on the HELOC may request an advance. A HELOC agreement may contain provisions that restrict which borrowers may request an advance or require all borrowers to consent to the request.

8, Ch. 153, Rule § 153.84: Restrictions on Devices and Methods to Obtain a HELOC Advance: Section 50(t)(3)

A HELOC is a form of an open-end account that may be debited from time to time, under which credit may be extended from time to time and under which an owner is prohibited from using a credit card, debit card, preprinted solicitation check, or similar device to obtain a HELOC advance.

- (1) A lender may offer one or more nonprohibited devices or methods for use by the owner to request an advance. Permissible methods include contacting the lender directly for an advance, telephonic fund transfers, and electronic fund transfers. Examples of devices that are not prohibited similar devices include prearranged drafts, convenience checks, or written transfer instructions. Regardless of the permissible method or device used to obtain a HELOC advance, the amount of the advance must comply with:
 - (A) the advance requirements in Section 50(t)(2);
 - (B) the loan-to-value limits in Section 50(t)(5); and

- (C) the debit or advance limits in Section 50(t)(6).
- (2) An owner may, but is not required to, make in-person contact with the lender to obtain a HELOC advance.
- (3) A credit card, which is a prohibited device under Section 50(t)(3), is a card that may be used for personal, family, or household use to debit an open-end account.
- (4) A preprinted solicitation check, which is a prohibited device under Section 50(t)(3), is a check that:
 - (A) is provided to an owner for the purpose of originating a HELOC or to a borrower for the purpose of soliciting additional advances on an existing HELOC;
 - (B) contains at least one preprinted key payment term, such as the amount or payee; and
 - (C) is not requested by the borrower or owner.

8, Ch. 153, Rule §153.85: Time the Extension of Credit is Established: Section 50(t)(4)

- (a) A HELOC is a form of an open-end account that may be debited from time to time, under which credit may be extended from time to time and under which fees described in Section 50 (a)(6)(E) are charged and collected only at the time the extension of credit is established and no fee is charged or collected in connection with any debit or advance.
- (b) For the purpose of this section, the time the extension of credit is established for a HELOC refers to the date of closing.

8, Ch. 153, Rule § 153.86: Maximum Principal Amount Extended under a HELOC: Section 50(t)(5)

A HELOC is a form of an open-end account that may be debited from time to time, under which credit may be extended from time to time and under which the maximum principal amount that may be extended under the account, when added to the aggregated total of the outstanding principal balances of all indebtedness secured by the homestead on the date the extension of credit is established, cannot exceed 80 percent of the fair market value of the homestead on the date the extension of credit is made.

- (1) At the time the initial or subsequent advance is made, the principal amount of the advance must comply with Section 50(t)(5). The following amounts when added together must be equal to or less than 80 percent of the fair market value:

- (A) the amount of the advance;
 - (B) the amount of the principal balance of the HELOC at the time of the advance; and
 - (C) the principal balance outstanding of all other debts secured by the homestead on the date of the closing of the HELOC.
- (2) An advance under Section 50(t)(5) must meet the requirements of Section 50(t)(2).
 - (3) The maximum principal balance of the HELOC that may be outstanding at any time must be determined on the date of closing and will not change through the term of the HELOC.
 - (4) For purposes of calculating the limits and thresholds under Section 50(t)(5) and (6), the outstanding principal balance of all other debts secured by the homestead is the principal balance outstanding of all other debts secured by the homestead on the date of the closing of the HELOC.

8, Ch. 153, Rule §153.87: Maximum Principal Amount of Additional Advances under a HELOC: Section 50(t)(6)

A HELOC is a form of an open-end account that may be debited from time to time, under which credit may be extended from time to time and under which no additional debits or advances can be made if the total principal amount outstanding exceeds an amount equal to 50 percent of the fair market value of the homestead as determined on the date the account is established.

- (1) A subsequent advance may be made only when the outstanding principal amount of the HELOC is 50 percent or less of the fair market value.
- (2) A subsequent advance is prohibited if the outstanding principal amount of the HELOC exceeds 50 percent of the fair market value.
- (3) If the outstanding principal amount exceeds 50 percent of the fair market value and then is repaid to an amount equal to or below the 50 percent of the fair market value, subsequent advances are permitted subject to the requirements of Section 50(t)(2) and (5).

8, Ch. 153, Rule § 153.88: Repayment Terms of a HELOC: Section 50(t)(8)

- (a) A HELOC is a form of an open-end account that may be debited from time to time, under which credit may be extended from time to time and under which repayment is to be made in regular periodic installments, not more often than every 14 days and not less often than monthly, beginning not later than two months from the date the extension of credit is established, and during the period during which the owner may request advances, each installment equals or exceeds the amount of accrued interest; and after the period during which the owner may request advances, installments are substantially equal.

- (b) Repayment of a HELOC is not required to begin until two months after the initial advance. For example, if an advance is not made at the time of closing, the repayment period is not required to begin until after the first advance. If there is no outstanding balance, then a payment is not required.
- (c) Nothing in this section prohibits a borrower from voluntarily making payments on a schedule that is more frequent or earlier than is required by a lender.

8, Ch. 153, Rule §153.91: Adequate Notice of Failure to Comply

- (a) A borrower notifies a lender or holder of its alleged failure to comply with an obligation by taking reasonable steps to notify the lender or holder of the alleged failure to comply. The notification must include a reasonable:
 - (1) identification of the borrower;
 - (2) identification of the loan; and
 - (3) description of the alleged failure to comply.
- (b) A borrower is not required to cite in the notification the section of the Constitution that the lender or holder allegedly violated.

8, Ch. 153, Rule § 153.92: Counting the 60-Day Cure Period

- (a) For purposes of Section 50(a)(6)(Q)(x), the day after the lender or holder receives the borrowers notification is day one of the 60-day period. All calendar days thereafter are counted up to day 60. If day 60 is a Sunday or federal legal public holiday, the period is extended to include the next day that is not a Sunday or federal legal public holiday.
- (b) If the borrower provides the lender or holder inadequate notice, the 60-day period does not begin to run.

8, Ch. 153, Rule § 153.93: Methods of Notification

- (a) At closing, the lender or holder may make a reasonably conspicuous designation in writing of the location where the borrower may deliver a written or oral notice of a violation under 50(a) (6)(Q)(x). The designation may include a mailing address, physical address, and telephone number. In addition, the lender or holder may designate an email address or other point of contact for delivery of a notice.
- (b) If the lender or holder chooses to change the designated delivery location as provided in subsection (a) of this section, the address change does not become effective until the lender or holder sends conspicuous written notice of the address change to the borrower.
- (c) The borrower may always deliver written notice to the registered agent of the lender or holder even if the lender or holder has named a delivery location.
- (d) If the lender or holder does not designate a location where the borrower may deliver a notice of violation, the borrower may deliver the notice to any physical address or mailing address of the lender or holder.
- (e) Delivery of the notice by borrower to lender or holders designated delivery location or registered agent by certified mail return receipt or other carrier delivery receipt, signed by the lender or holder, constitutes a rebuttable presumption of receipt by the lender or holder.
- (f) If the borrower opts for a location or method of delivery other than set out in subsection (e), the borrower has the burden of proving that the location and method of delivery were reasonably calculated to put the lender or holder on notice of the default.

8, Ch. 153, Rule § 153.94: Methods of Curing a Violation Under Section 50 (a)(6)(Q)(x)(a)-(e)

- (a) The lender or holder may correct a failure to comply under Section 50(a)(6)(Q)(x)(a)-(e), on or before the 60th day after the lender or holder receives the notice from an owner, if the lender or holder delivers required documents, notices, acknowledgements, or pays funds by:
 - (1) placing in the mail, placing with other delivery carrier, or delivering in person the required documents, notices, acknowledgements, or funds;
 - (2) crediting the amount to borrower's account; or
 - (3) using any other delivery method that the borrower agrees to in writing after the lender or holder receives the notice.

- (b) The lender or holder has the burden of proving compliance with this section.

8, Ch. 153, Rule §153.95: Cure a Violation Under Section 50(a)(6)(Q)(x)

- (a) If the lender or holder timely corrects a violation of Section 50(a)(6)(Q)(x) as provided in Section 50(a)(6)(Q)(x), then the violation does not invalidate the lien.
- (b) A lender or holder who complies with Section 50(a)(6)(Q)(x) to cure Section 50(a)(6)(Q)(x) before receiving notice of the violation from the borrower receives the same protection as if the lender had timely cured after receiving notice.
- (c) A borrower's refusal to cooperate fully with an offer that complies with Section 50(a)(6)(Q)(x) to modify or refinance an equity loan does not invalidate the lender's protection for correcting a failure to comply.

8, Ch. 153, Rule § 153.96: Correcting Failures Under Section 50(a)(6)(Q)(x)(f)

- (a) To correct a failure to comply under Section 50(a)(6)(Q)(x)(f), on or before the 60th day after the lender or holder receives the notice from the borrower the lender or holder may:
 - (1) refund or credit the $1,000 to the account of the borrower; and
 - (2) make an offer to modify or an offer to refinance the extension of credit on the terms provided in Section 50(a)(6)(Q)(x)(f) by placing the offer in the mail, other delivery carrier, or delivering the offer in person to the owner.
- (b) To correct a failure to comply under Section 50(a)(6)(Q)(x)(f):
 - (1) the lender or holder has the option to either refund or credit $1,000; and
 - (2) the lender or holder and borrower may:
 - (A) modify the equity loan without completing the requirements of a refinance; or
 - (B) refinance with an extension of credit that complies with Section 50(a)(6).
- (c) The lender or holder has the burden of proving compliance with this section.
- (d) After the borrower accepts an offer to modify or refinance, the lender must make a good

attempt to modify or refinance within a reasonable time not to exceed 90 days.
